

PRIME TECH

Product Overview

Technology E&O insurance combined with our cyber coverage

Available for Primary and Excess, Prime Tech is a non-admitted professional indemnity offering designed for technology businesses with up to $1B in revenue that need combined Technology Errors & Omissions (E&O) and cyber coverage. It's the ideal solution for companies where performance issues or security failures could cause financial or reputational loss. Prime Tech provides limits up to $5M.

Comprehensive protection

Prime Tech blends E&O and cyber coverage to address risks tied to both technology performance and digital security, delivering protection that evolves with today's threats.

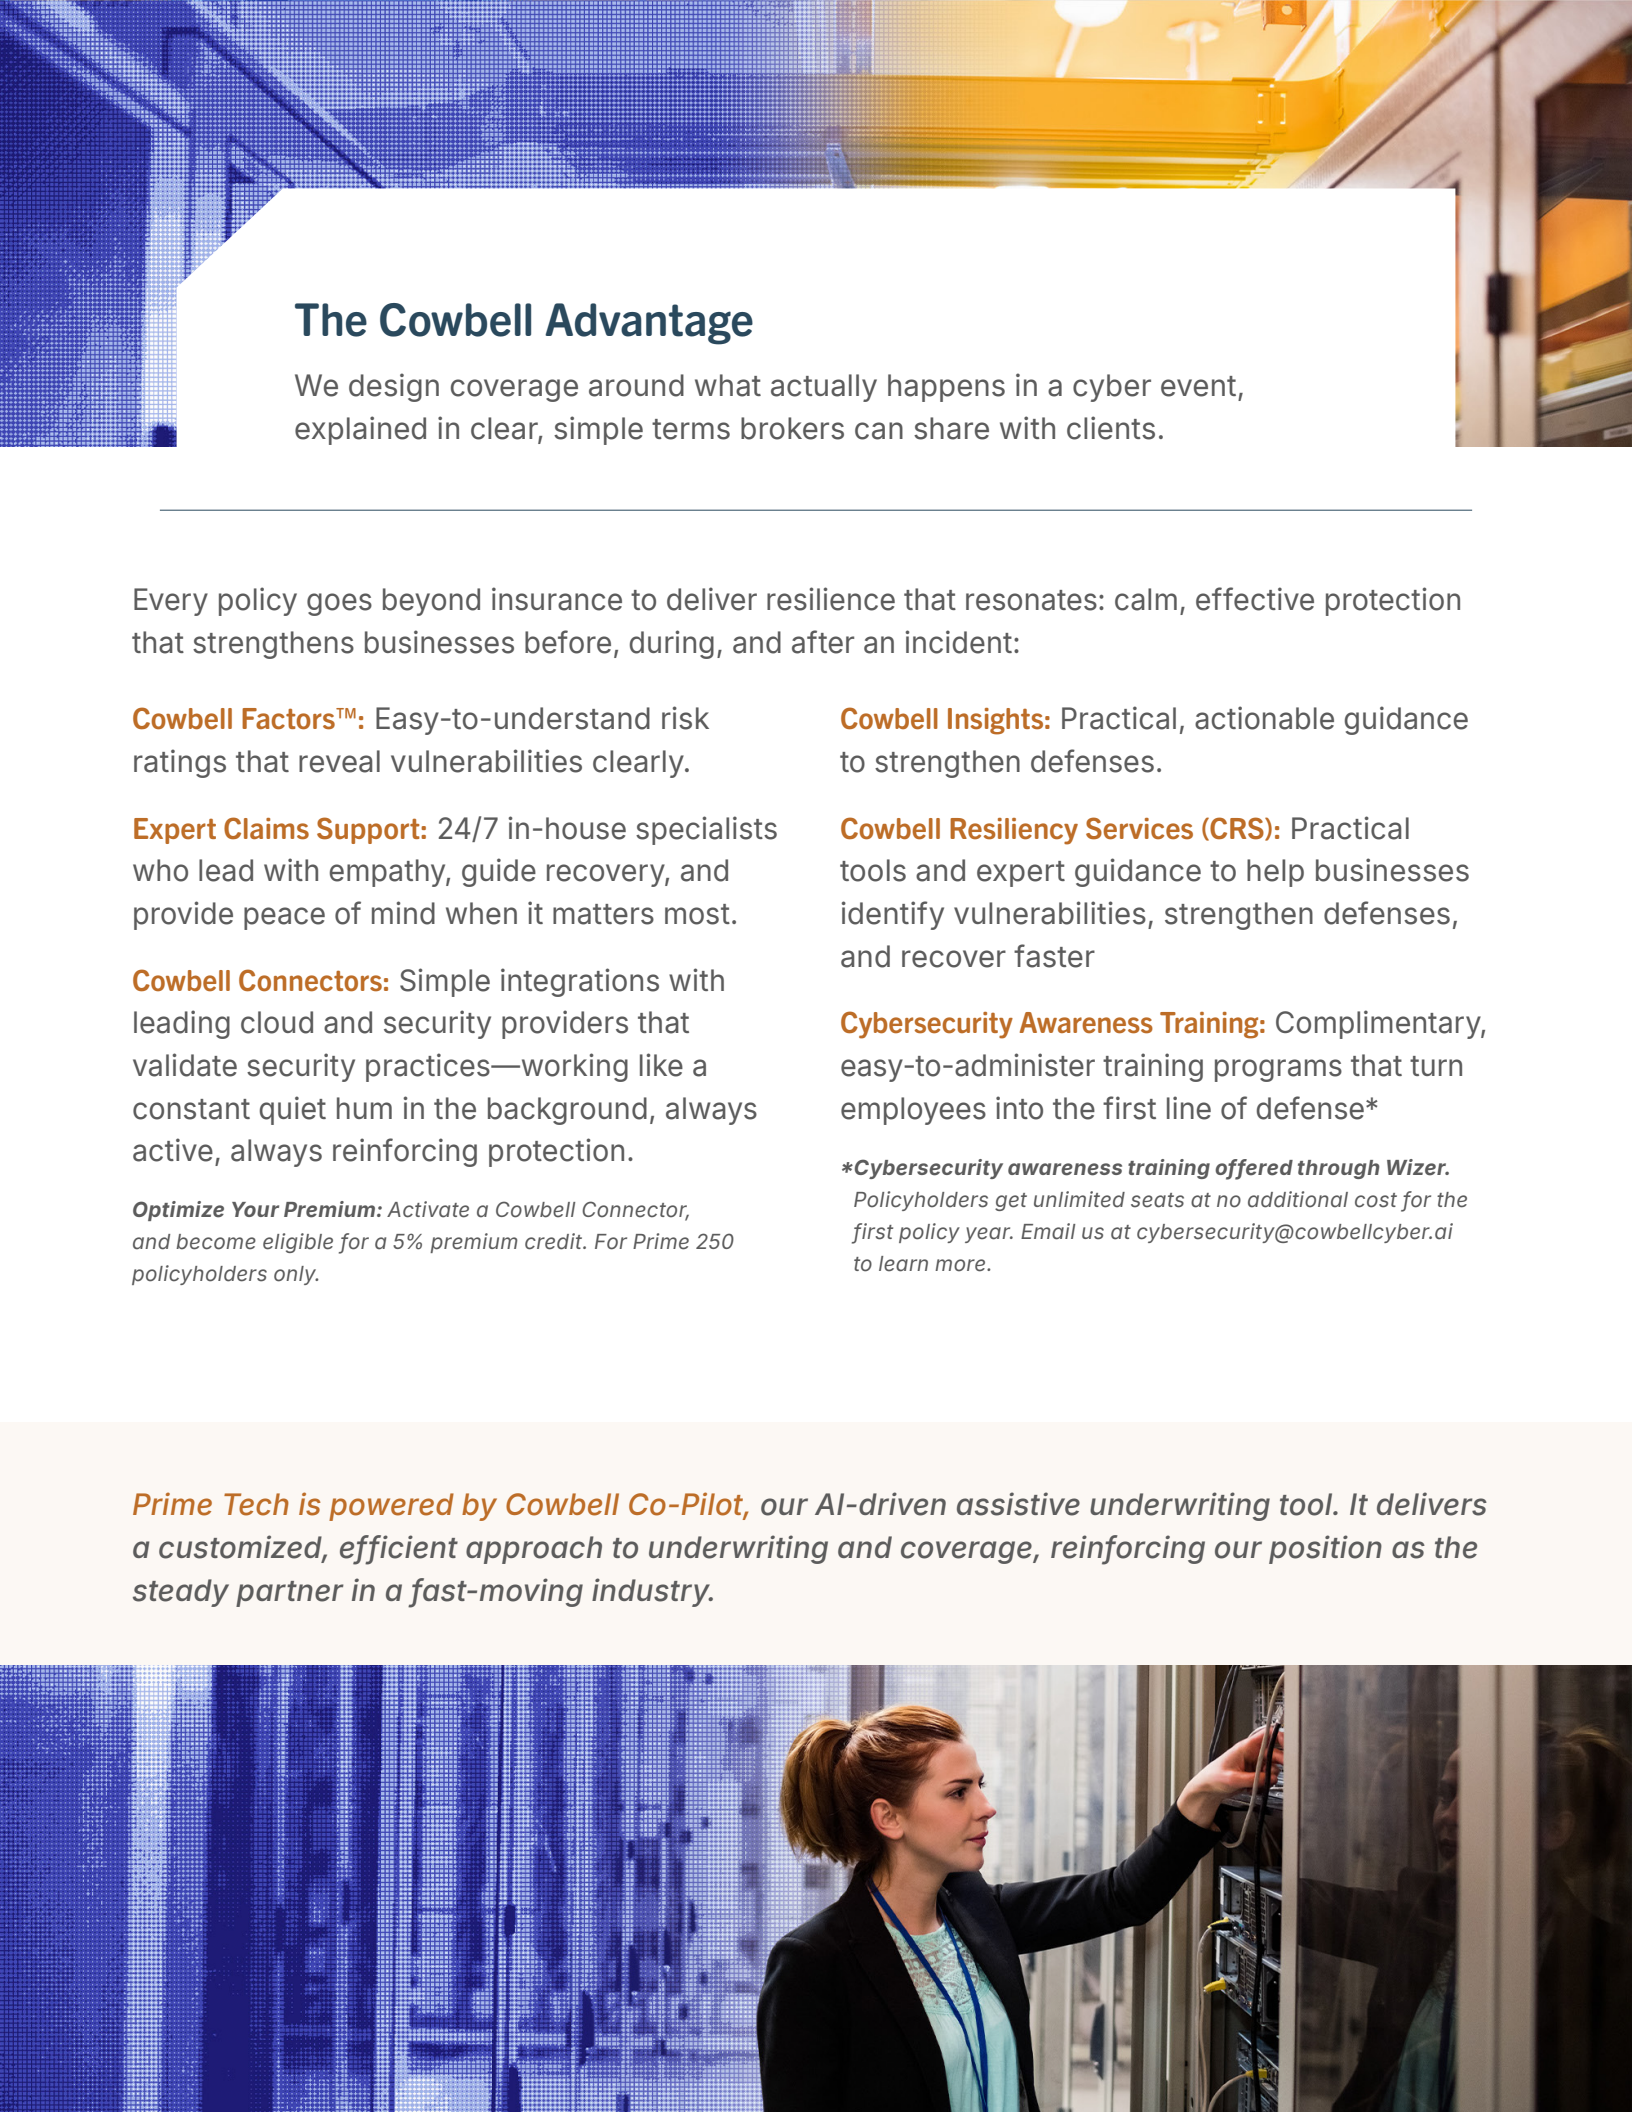

Tailored for tech companies

From SaaS providers to IT consultants, Prime Tech is designed for the exposures that matter most in the technology sector, explained in clear, simple terms that brokers can share with clients.
